

PRIVACY POLICY

TUTELA DIGITALE (hereinafter referred to as COMPANY) is interested in outlining how it manages the application, with particular reference to the aims and methods by which the personal data of the people who use it are collected, recorded and used. This POLICY (privacy policy), aimed at those who interact with the application of LinKiller, intends to meet the requirements of the Re.EU N. 679/2016 (the "Regulation") and Legislative Decree n. 196/2003 ("Privacy Code"), and is also in line with the Recommendation n. 2/2001 that the European authorities for the protection of personal data, gathered in the Group established by art. 29 of the Directive n. 95/46 / EC, adopted May 17, 2001, with the aim of identifying the minimum requirements for the collection of online personal data; in particular, the methods, timing and nature of the information that must be provided to the users of the application.

THE DATA PROCESSED

Computer systems and software procedures that guarantee the functioning of this application acquire certain personal data, the transmission of which is implicit in the communication protocols of the Internet.

This information is not collected to be associated with identified data subjects, but by its very nature could, through processing and associations with other data, enable users to be identified.

AIMS OF DATA PROCESSING AND COMMUNICATION

Browsing data is used only for the purpose of obtaining anonymous statistical information on the use of the application and to control its proper functioning.

The processing operations connected to the web services of this application are handled by the COMPANY's staff, who for this purpose has been appointed "Data Processor", as well as by third parties as "Responsible".

The data provided may also be communicated abroad, however within the limits of the aforementioned purposes, to other offices of the COMPANY located in the world or to professional partners. In this case, the data subject will be free to express their preference in relation to the transfer of their data abroad.

OPTIONAL PROVISION OF DATA

Apart from what is specified for the browsing data, the user is free to provide personal data through the forwarding of communications to solicit the sending of informative material.

However, failure to provide this information may lead to the inability of the COMPANY to provide the services requested.

PROCESSING METHOD AND DATA RETENTION CRITERIA

Personal data is processed by automated tools only for the amount of time strictly necessary in order to enable them to provide the services required.

Specific security measures are observed to prevent data loss, unlawful or incorrect use and unauthorized access. No data from the application shall be disseminated.

RIGHTS OF DATA SUBJECTS

The data subjects have the right, at any time, when the legal requirements are met, to obtain confirmation of the existence or otherwise of the data concerned and to be informed of its content and origin, verify its accuracy or request it to be integrated, updated, or corrected or restriction of processing, data portability (Art.15-22 of the Regulation).

The user also has the right to request cancellation, transformation into anonymous form or the blocking of the processed data, as well as to oppose, for legitimate reasons, to its processing.

Requests can be sent to the e-mail address: tuteladigitale@legalmail.it

Users may also, in relation to the processing of personal data described in this Privacy Policy, send complaints to the Guarantor for the Protection of Personal Data (www.garanteprivacy.it)
